

Adams Street Appoints Chief Technology Officer Alicia Pando to Executive Committee

CHICAGO, IL – September 19, 2022 – Adams Street Partners, LLC, a private markets investment firm with $50 billion of assets under management, announced today that Alicia Pando, a Partner and the firm’s Chief Technology Officer, has been appointed to the firm’s Executive Committee.

Ms. Pando’s strategic technology leadership has helped drive the growth of Adams Street’s global private markets investment platform. She has overseen the build-out of front office investment and CRM systems, as well as back-office operations, reporting, and risk management systems. Ms. Pando will continue to lead the development of Adams Street’s data, applications, infrastructure, and cyber security capabilities. She oversees one of the largest groups at Adams Street and is also a member of the firm’s Operating Committee.

“Technology innovation is a strategic priority for Adams Street,” said Jeff Diehl, Managing Partner & Head of Investments at Adams Street. “Alicia’s leadership of our software development, IT infrastructure and data management areas has been exceptional and has resulted in material advances that have touched every aspect of our firm. Alicia’s insights as a member of our Executive Committee will help Adams Street scale our business globally while better serving our clients.”
